

Protests of farmers in Greece

Today January 22, 2016 farmers will close the highway at the height of Tempi 12:00pm - 14:00pm.

The police has closed the Highway in Nice for security reasons after 2,000 tractors have been gathered on the road.

Tomorrow, January 23, 2016, farmers will also block Malgara and Egnatia highway in Kerdyllia between 12:00pm - 14:00pm.

Also there are already roadblocks in Kouloura, the customs offices of Promahona, Exohi, Kipi and Kastanies in Evros area.

Tomorrow, January 23, 2016 morning, farmers will proceed to block the old national road Thessaloniki - Edessa, the Chalkidiki junction and for half an hour will block the side roads.

Tomorrow Saturday at 12:00pm, the farmers of Tempe invite all Greek farmers to decide for new strikes.

Actually farmers have requested a meeting with Prime Minister to discuss tax and insurance matters. Otherwise Monday will continue further their protests and will block indefinitely all Greek highways.

For your information

OFAE Secretariat