

Expected traffic jams on 11 November - Information

Germany - France (November 04, 2016)

Regarding the driving ban in France on 11 November, German police are expecting major traffic jams at several German border crossings. German police at Freiburg have therefore produced a multilingual flyer informing drivers of the situation and requesting that they adapt their schedules accordingly.

Source: BGL
